

St. Aidan's Episcopal Church First Sunday in Lent

March 9, 2025 8 a.m.

The Liturgy of the Word

A Word about the Stones

As our service begins you are invited to pick up a stone to hold through the majority of our worship. The stone is meant to signify something(s) we are carrying in this holy, challenging season. At Communion when you come forward, we invite you to place your stone in the container of sand near the altar. Together, we lay our burdens down and receive the nourishment of holy food to sustain us in the desert.

Opening Sentences

Presider Bless the God of our salvation:
People Who bears our burdens and forgives our sins.

Confession

Deacon
or Presider Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

A space of silence is kept

God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Canticle: Be Still

The Deacon or Presider introduces the Canticle. All then pray it together.

God is our refuge and strength,* a very present help in trouble.

Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be moved,*
and though the mountains be toppled into the depths of the sea;

Though its waters rage and foam,* and though the mountains tremble at its tumult.

The Holy One is with us;* the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,* the holy habitation of the Most High.

God is in the midst of her; she shall not be overthrown;* God shall help her at the break of day.

Come now and look upon the works of God,* what awesome things have been done on earth.

It is God who makes war to cease in all the world;*
breaks the bow, and shatters the spear, and burns the shields with fire.

“Be still, then, and know that I am God;* I will be exalted among the nations; I will be exalted in the earth.

The Holy One is with us,* the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

The Collect of the Day

Presider Hear our cry, O God.
People And listen to our prayer.

Presider Together, let us pray.

Almighty God, whose blessed Son was led by the Spirit to be tempted by Satan: Come quickly to help us who are assaulted by many temptations; and, as you know the weaknesses of each of us, let each one find you mighty to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Savior, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Lector A reading from Deuteronomy (26:1-11).

When you have come into the land that the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the Lord your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the Lord your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, "Today I declare to the Lord your God that I have come into the land that the Lord swore to our ancestors to give us." When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the Lord your God, you shall make this response before the Lord your God: "A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labor on us, we cried to the Lord, the God of our ancestors; the Lord heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. The Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O Lord, have given me." You shall set it down before the Lord your God and bow down before the Lord your God. Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the Lord your God has given to you and to your house.

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's People.

People Thanks be to God.

The Deacon or Officiant introduces the Psalm and reads the Antiphon at the beginning and ending of the Psalm. All join in reading the bolded text.

Psalm 91:1-2, 9-16

Antiphon God will have charge over you, to keep you in all your ways.

- 1 They who dwell in the shelter of the Most High,* abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
- 2 They will say to our God, "You are my refuge and my stronghold,* the one in whom I put my trust."
- 9 Because you have made our God your refuge,* and the Most High your habitation,
- 10 There shall no evil happen to you,* neither shall any plague come near your dwelling.
- 11 For God's angels will have charge over you,* to keep you in all your ways.
- 12 They shall bear you in their hands,* lest you dash your foot against a stone.
- 13 You shall tread upon the lion and adder:*
you shall trample the young lion and the serpent under your feet.
- 14 Because you are bound to me in love, therefore will I deliver you;*
I will protect you, because you know my Name.
- 15 You shall call upon me, and I will answer you;*

I am with you in trouble; I will rescue you and bring you to honor.

16 With long life will I satisfy you,* and show you my salvation.

Antiphon God will have charge over you, to keep you in all your ways.

Second Reading

Lector A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans (10:8b-13).

"The word is near you,
on your lips and in your heart"

(that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

All Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ, according to Luke (4:1-13).

All Glory to you, O Christ.

After his baptism, Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread." Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone.'"

Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, "To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours." Jesus answered him, "It is written,

"Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him."

Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written,

'He will command his angels concerning you,
to protect you,'

and

'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'"

Jesus answered him, "It is said, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'" When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

Deacon The Gospel of our Savior.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Cameron Partridge

Silence

After the sermon, a bell will sound to mark a period of silence. After the silence, the bell will sound a second time to mark the conclusion of this time.

Nicene Creed

Deacon Together, let us join in saying the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary and was made human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
Who proceeds from the Father and the Son;
Who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified;
Who has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Deacon or Presider

Let us bring our cares and concerns to the One who is always ready to be our guide and help in troubled times.

Intercessor

We pray for the leaders and people of our Church and all people of faith, that we may courageously give witness to the way of love.

Deacon or Presider shares the Episcopal, Anglican, and Parish Cycles of Prayer, inviting additional prayers.

Intercessor O God, give us the joy of your saving help,
People and sustain us with your bountiful Spirit.

Intercessor We pray for all in authority in our national, state and local governments, that they may serve all the people with justice, mercy, and humility, and that we may have the will to hold them accountable.

Deacon or Presider shares our communal prayers for justice, inviting additional prayers.

Intercessor O God, give us the joy of your saving help,
People and sustain us with your bountiful Spirit.

Intercessor As Jesus turned to solitude in the wilderness to prepare for the beginning of his ministry, let us honor and restore your natural world.

Deacon or Presider reads the Land Acknowledgement and invites additional prayers.

Intercessor O God, give us the joy of your saving help,
People and sustain us with your bountiful Spirit.

Intercessor We pray for all who are oppressed, who are living in danger or fear, or who are in need of healing of mind, body or spirit.

Deacon or Presider reads the names of those who have asked for prayers and invites additional prayers.

Intercessor O God, give us the joy of your saving help,
People and sustain us with your bountiful Spirit.

Intercessor As the angels ministered to Jesus in the desert, we pray that angels will minister to all who have died and all who mourn.

Deacon or Presider reads the names of those who have recently died and invites additional prayers.

Intercessor O God, give us the joy of your saving help,
People and sustain us with your bountiful Spirit.

Intercessor We give thanks for all the blessings of this life, remembering that even in times of trial, we may find joy and peace in you, our God.

Deacon or Officiant reads the names of those celebrating birthdays and invites additional prayers

Intercessor O God, give us the joy of your saving help,
People and sustain us with your bountiful Spirit.

Presider

O God, accept the prayers of your people; look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, One God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Peace

Presider The Peace of God be always with you.
People And also with you.

We greet each other in the name of Christ

Offertory Sentence

Presider Thus says our God, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters: "I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert." Let us with gladness bring offerings of our life and labor to God.

The Liturgy of the Table

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up to God.

Presider Let us give thanks to God.

People It is right to offer thanks and praise.

The Presider continues

It is right indeed to give you thanks most loving God, through Jesus Christ, our Redeemer, the firstborn from the dead, the pioneer of our salvation, who is with us always, one of us, yet from the heart of God.

For with your whole created universe, we praise you for your unfailing gift of life. We thank you that you make us human, stay with us, and create clean hearts in us even when we turn from you to sin.

In that love, dear God, righteous and strong to save, you came among us in Jesus Christ. You make all things new. In Christ's suffering and cross you reveal your glory and reconcile all peoples to yourself, their true and living God.

By Christ's journey into the wilderness are we all brought home; by his agony and death are we come finally to life; the cross of shame is now the tree of glory.

In your mercy you gather us, new-born in your Spirit, a people after your own heart. We entrust ourselves to you, for you alone do justice to all people, living and departed.

Now is the acceptable time, now is the day of salvation.

Therefore with saints and martyrs, apostles and prophets, with all the redeemed, joyfully we praise you and sing:

Holy, holy, holy, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of our God.

Hosanna in the highest.

All glory to you, Giver of life sufficient and full for all creation. Accept our praises, living God, for Jesus Christ who in the night that he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said: Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you; do this to remember me.

After supper he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them and said: Drink this, all of you. This is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you, and for all, to forgive sin. Do this as often as you drink it to remember me.

Therefore, God of all creation, in the suffering and death of Jesus our redeemer, we meet you in your glory. We lift up the cup of salvation and call upon your name. Here and now, with this bread and wine, we celebrate your great acts of liberation, ever present and living in Jesus Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come.

Amen! Come Lord Jesus.

May Christ ascended in majesty be our new and living way, our access to you, Divine Parent, Creator, and source of all new life. In Christ we offer ourselves to do your will.

Empower our celebration with your Holy Spirit, feed us with your life, fire us with your love, confront us with your justice, and make us one in the body of Christ with all who share your gifts of love.

Through Christ, in the power of the Holy Spirit, with all who stand before you in earth and heaven, we worship you, God our Creator. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Deacon As our Savior Christ taught us, we now pray,

God in heaven, hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, your will be done,
On earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
Now and forever. Amen.

The Fraction

The Presider breaks the bread and says,

Presider We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.

All We who are many are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

Lifting the bread and cup, together with others serving at the altar, the Presider says, Presider The gifts of God for the people of God. All are welcome at God's table.

*When you come forward, we invite you to place your stone in the container of sand near the altar.
Together, we lay our burdens down and receive the nourishment of holy food to sustain us in the desert.*

*This Altar belongs to God and all are welcome to partake, wherever you are on your journey of faith.
If you choose to not receive the bread and wine, you are also welcome to come forward for a blessing;
simply cross your arms over your chest.*

The bread and wine are given to the communicants with these words:

The Body of Christ, the bread of heaven; The Blood of Christ, the cup of salvation.

During Communion, those present via Zoom are encouraged to pray the following prayer for Spiritual Communion that we have shared together since the beginning of the pandemic:

In union, O God, with your people at every altar of your Church, we offer you praise, giving thanks for your presence in the holy gifts of bread and wine. In our spatial distance we invite you to come spiritually into our hearts, nourishing and strengthening us as members of your body. Amen.

Post Communion Prayer

Presider Most loving God, Creator and Redeemer, we give you thanks for this foretaste of your glory.

People Through Christ, with St. Aidan and all your saints, we offer ourselves and our lives to your service. Send us out in the power of your Spirit, to stand with you in your world. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Redeemer and Liberator. Amen.

Healing Prayer

*Anyone who wishes is invited to make a request for healing prayer, either for yourself or on behalf of another.
The Presider will then offer a prayer.*

Blessing

Presider May Christ the desert sojourner guide your path, leading you to living waters; and the blessing of God, Source of all being, Incarnate Word, and Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you always. Amen.

Dismissal

Deacon Let us bless God.
All Thanks be to God.

Sunday forum featuring Kaya Oakes

Sunday April 6

11:45 a.m. – 1:15 p.m.
in person and on Zoom

In her provocative book, Not So Sorry: Abusers, False Apologies, and the Limits of Forgiveness, Catholic journalist and culture critic Kaya Oakes examines the mandate to forgive that effectively exists in many Christian communities and in our culture as a whole to some extent. She also asks the question: Is it ever better NOT to forgive? Our Adult Formation series this Lent will wrestle with Not So Sorry for the weeks leading up to Kaya Oakes' visit with us on Sunday, April 6. Along the way we will also re-engage with some of the core material from William Countryman and Desmond and Mpho Tutu that we studied in our Lenten series on forgiveness in 2018, considering how Not So Sorry relates to it. We have copies of the book available for $22 apiece. Please contact Cameron to arrange to get one.

Call to Action from Faith in Action

The group of recently arrived immigrant families working with Faith in Action ask for our support in their efforts to prevent children from being turned out onto the streets. Use this link to email Mayor Lurie and the Board of Supervisors: <https://tinyurl.com/4c4hfxbn>

Here is part of the statement the parents issued:

Last year, we worked with Supervisor Ahsha Safaí and Mayor London Breed to secure $50 million in much-needed additional funding for hotel vouchers and rental subsidies for unhoused families with children, yet months later the approved resources have yet to become available. Instead of evicting families and causing more chaos and instability for us and our kids, we need Mayor Lurie to ensure that these resources are spent properly to ensure that we have no more children living in the streets of San Francisco.

St. Aidan's Prayers

In Your Prayers, Please Remember:

In acknowledgment that St. Aidan's is located within the unceded ancestral land of the Yelamu tribe of the Ramaytush Ohlone people, with gratitude for their ongoing relationship with this holy place.

In the Episcopal Church: For Sean our Presiding Bishop; and for our bishop Austin.

In the Anglican Cycle of Prayer: For the Anglican Church of Canada.

In the Diocesan Cycle of Prayer: For St. Gregory of Nyssa, San Francisco.

In our Parish Cycle of Prayer: For the Prayer Chain.

For those with birthdays this week: Julian, Simon, Elaine, Joel, Morgan.

For all striving for mental and emotional balance and wholeness, and for their families and friends.

For those who have asked for our prayers: Albert T, Denise, Don F., Harlean D., Isaac C., Jaime, Janice T., Jean W., Jenny M., Jim O., Joe, Joelle, Judy B., Lynne and Meg S., Margarita, Marc L., Mark, Matthew G., Mercedes, Mina Marie, Nicole M., Pat K., Patricia, Paul M. and family, Pete M., Peter G., Rebecca, Richie and family, Sarah G., Susan R., Tim F., and in the St. Cyprian's community for Adrian W., and Jasmine H.

For the ongoing work against intersecting forms of oppression, particularly racism and transphobia, and in affirmation of human dignity.

For our work in the world in our daily lives and for the ministries of the Friday Food Pantry and Diamond Diners.

For our congregation as we embrace our call to practice sanctuary: may we commit ourselves to prayer, education, and support for immigrants to this country and for all who are estranged, excluded, or threatened in 21st century America. We pray in thanksgiving for the numerous gifts our refugee and immigrant siblings have brought, and continue to bring, to our country.

For all who are struggling in this time of intensified injustice and polarization in our country and around the world: for strengthened relationships and deepened commitment to our common life and the well-being of our planet.

For those who have recently died: Shirley Sabin, Angela Hunkler, The Rev. Robert Cromey, Irma Pride, Marilyn Joyce Thomte, Father John Shozawa, Alton Woo, Kathy Randlett, Michelle Henry, and in the St. Cyprian's community for Pia Harris.

To place a name on our prayer list, please contact the church office at 415-285-9540, ext. 3 or office@staidansf.org. Names of the living are printed by first name and will be kept on the prayer list for four weeks. To keep someone on the list for longer, please notify the office.
