

Advent V

St. Aidan's Episcopal Church
December 7, 2025
8:00 a.m.

The Liturgy of the Word

Opening Acclamation

Presider Blessed are you, holy and living one.
People You come to your people and set them free.

Lighting of the Advent Wreath

Deacon or Presider

God of peace, your reign is revealed in the transforming of swords into ploughshares, the mending of rent garments, the binding up of broken hearts.

As we light these candles, come among us, open our hearts, infuse us with your life, that together we manifest your justice, your compassion, your peace.

The Collect of the Day

Presider God be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Let us pray.

Gracious God, your Son Jesus Christ opened wide gate of heaven, making plain the way that leads to eternal joy: Grant that we who have been buried with Christ in baptism and raised to new life may strive courageously for the freedom and peace of the world; through the same your Son, Jesus Christ, to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Reading

Lector A reading from Isaiah (11:1-10).

A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse,
and a branch shall grow out of his roots.
The spirit of the Lord shall rest on him,
the spirit of wisdom and understanding,
the spirit of counsel and might,
the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord.
His delight shall be in the fear of the Lord.
He shall not judge by what his eyes see,
or decide by what his ears hear;
but with righteousness he shall judge the poor,
and decide with equity for the meek of the earth;
he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth,
and with the breath of his lips he shall kill the wicked.
Righteousness shall be the belt around his waist,
and faithfulness the belt around his loins.

The wolf shall live with the lamb,
the leopard shall lie down with the kid,
the calf and the lion and the fatling together,
and a little child shall lead them.
The cow and the bear shall graze, their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

The nursing child shall play over the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put its hand on the adder's den.
They will not hurt or destroy
on all my holy mountain;
for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the Lord
as the waters cover the sea.
On that day the root of Jesse shall stand as a signal to the peoples; the nations shall inquire of him, and his dwelling shall be glorious.

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 72:1-7, 18-19

The Deacon or Presider introduces the Psalm and reads the Antiphon. All join in reading the bolded text.

Antiphon The king shall have pity on the lowly and poor, and shall redeem their lives from oppression.

- 1 Give the King your justice, O God,* and your righteousness to the King's Son;
- 2 That he may rule your people righteously* and the poor with justice.
- 3 That the mountains may bring prosperity to the people,* and the little hills bring justice;
- 4 He shall defend the needy among the people;* he shall rescue the poor and crush the oppressor.
- 5 He shall live as long as the sun and moon endure,* from one generation to another.
- 6 He shall come down like rain upon the mown field,* like showers that water the earth.
- 7 In his time shall the righteous flourish;*
there shall be abundance of peace till the moon shall be no more.
- 18 Blessed are you, O God of Israel,* who alone do wondrous deeds!
- 19 And blessed be your glorious Name for ever!
and may all the earth be filled with your glory. Amen. Amen.

Antiphon The king shall have pity on the lowly and poor, and shall redeem their lives from oppression.

The Second Reading

Lector A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans (15:4-13).

Whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, so that by steadfastness and by the encouragement of the scriptures we might have hope. May the God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, in accordance with Christ Jesus, so that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Welcome one another, therefore, just as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God. For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the circumcised on behalf of the truth of God in order that he might confirm the promises given to the patriarchs, and in order that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written,

"Therefore I will confess you among the Gentiles, and sing praises to your name";

and again he says,

"Rejoice, O Gentiles, with his people";

and again,

"Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles, and let all the peoples praise him";

and again Isaiah says,

"The root of Jesse shall come,
the one who rises to rule the Gentiles;
in him the Gentiles shall hope."

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Deacon or Presider The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew (3:1-12).
People Glory to you, O Christ.

In those days John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness of Judea, proclaiming, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near." This is the one of whom the prophet Isaiah spoke when he said,

"The voice of one crying out in the wilderness:
'Prepare the way of the Lord,
make his paths straight.'"

Now John wore clothing of camel's hair with a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. Then the people of Jerusalem and all Judea were going out to him, and all the region along the Jordan, and they were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.

But when he saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism, he said to them, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bear fruit worthy of repentance. Do not presume to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our ancestor'; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. Even now the ax is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

"I baptize you with water for repentance, but one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor and will gather his wheat into the granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire."

Deacon or Presider The Gospel of our Savior.
People Praise to you, O Christ

The Sermon

The Rev. Elaina LeGault

Silence After the sermon, a bell will sound to mark a brief period of silence. The bell will sound a second time to mark the conclusion of this time.

Nicene Creed

Deacon Together, let us join in saying the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

*We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary and was made human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.*

*We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
Who proceeds from the Father and the Son;
Who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified;
Who has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.*

Announcements

Offertory Sentence

Presider "I pray that God may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which God has called you." Let us bring offerings of our life and labor to God.

The Liturgy of the Table

Presider God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to God.

Presider Let us give thanks to God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider

Mystery of winter skies, we thank you in the darkening hours for opening our eyes to see your starlit beauty; for parting the wide heavens to send your gentle light; for offering your word to take our mortal flesh.

Christ was promised by those who shared your dream of peace; John the Baptist cleared his way with words of desert fire; Mary and Joseph accepted his coming with tenderness and faith; we know that he draws near again to reveal the in-breaking of your reign.

Now we take up the song of hope that we might awaken to his coming among us and the world be touched by the footfall of his glory:

Holy, Holy, Holy, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of our God.

Hosanna in the highest.

The Presider continues

We ask that your Holy Spirit fall upon us and upon these gifts, that these fragile, earthly things may be to us the body and blood of our Savior and brother, Jesus Christ; who, on the night that he was betrayed, gathered with his faltering friends for a meal that tasted of freedom.

Calling them to his table, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and said: "This is my body which is given for you. Do this to remember me."

In the same way after supper he took the cup, saying: "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, whenever you drink it, to remember me."

As on that night, so here and now he offers himself in taste and touch beyond what words can hold. Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Presider continues

Therefore, in our eating and drinking we are filled with the life-giving presence of Christ; we proclaim him as creation's host, transforming poverty into plenty in the reckless generosity of love.

Inspire us with the hope that one day death and greed will be no more and people without number will come from east and west, north and south to share the kingdom meal. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Savior, by whom and with whom and in whom in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory be yours, Mother of blessings, for ever and ever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Deacon As the Wisdom before Creation teaches us, we pray,
All God in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction

The Presider breaks the bread and says,

Presider This is the true bread which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.
All Whoever eats this bread will live forever.

The Invitation

Lifting the bread and cup, the Presider and Deacon invite the people.

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God. All are welcome at God's table.
*This Altar belongs to God and all are welcome to partake, wherever you are on your journey of faith.
If you choose to not receive the bread and/or wine, you are also welcome to receive a blessing;
simply come forward and cross your arms over your chest.*

The Bread and Wine are given to the communicants with these words:

The Body of Christ, the bread of heaven. The Blood of Christ, the cup of salvation.

Postcommunion Prayer

Presider Let us pray.
All God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

Healing Prayer

*The people are invited to share a request for healing prayer.
You may make a request for yourself or on behalf of another. The Presider then offers a prayer.*

Blessing

Presider
The peace of God that passes all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God; and the blessing of God, Source of all being, Incarnate Word and Holy Spirit, be with you now and always. Amen.

The Dismissal

Deacon or Presider Let us bless God.
People Thanks be to God!

Extended Advent

Sunday, November 9, we began our observance of an extended seven-week Advent. This expanded Advent is part of a movement to observe Advent with greater intentionality, even as we continue to use the same readings assigned by the lectionary to the wider church. You can read the rationale for this movement on the website of the Advent Project or in What Are We Waiting For: Reimagining Advent for Time to Come by William Peterson. In a context where (a secularized) Christmas culture lurks everywhere – even before Halloween now! – an extended Advent resists this spread, and its mischaracterization of the season. Advent is not simply a countdown to Christmas. It is an embrace of the in-breaking reign of God. We share a longer Advent observance with our Greek Orthodox neighbors, even as other Christian denominations take on this spirit of intentionality with slightly different framings: this part of the church year has been called Kingdomtide in some Protestant traditions and liturgical calendar of the Church of England is now in countdown to Advent, calling this Sunday the “Fourth Sunday Before Advent” (you can look at their church calendar online here). Welcome to Advent.

Advent Formation Series

PEOPLE OF PEACE: Grounding Ourselves in Nonviolence

Four Zoom sessions: ~~Wednesday November 12; November 19; December 3; December 10~~

6:30 p.m. Evening Prayer; 7 – 8:15 Program

Amid the turbulence of our current political climate, we hear a lot about “peaceful protests” and “nonviolent resistance.” For the most part, our public conversation uses the term nonviolence to indicate merely the absence of something, rather than the presence of a courageous and active spiritual practice that confronts evil with love. In our Advent Wednesday evening series this year, we will ground ourselves in nonviolence by exploring the work of leaders whose faith has shaped and led this living tradition. Please join us on Zoom via the link for Evening Prayer. If you have questions or need the link, please contact Susan Spencer or Barbara Stevenson.

More Opportunities for Solidarity with Immigrants

Several local organizations offer opportunities to stand with immigrants facing Trump administration attacks.

Faith in Action(www.faithinactionba.org): Local branch of a national community-organizing group anchored in faith communities around the country. In the Bay Area they focus on housing and immigration. Opportunities include:

- Immigration Court. Accompany immigrants to their court hearings. You'll need at least conversational Spanish, and you'll be trained before you get started. For more information and the sign-up link: www.faithinactionba.org/accompaniment.
- Rapid Response Network (203) 666-4472: Faith in Action operates the San Mateo County Rapid Response phone network, providing information for immigrants and their supporters in the whole Bay Area, not just San Mateo. Call the number:
 - If you or a loved one has been detained by ICE
 - If you learn that someone has been detained by immigration enforcement
 - If you see ICE activity in the community
 - If you need accompaniment at an ICE Check-In or court appearance
 - If you need support filling out your asylum paperwork within the first year of entering the country
 - If you think immigration enforcement is contacting you by phone call or text message

Immigration court demonstrations and vigils: Several groups maintain a presence outside the immigration court at 100 Montgomery in downtown SF. Here are a couple:

- Interfaith Court Vigil (www.im4humanintegrity.org/category/events/): Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday every week. Sponsored by the Interfaith Movement for Human Integrity. Click here to sign up: bit.ly/CourtVigilVolunteer.
- Tuesday and Friday demonstrations: Loosely organized, pretty confrontative demonstrations, called by Democratic Socialists of America and others.

Immigration Court Observers: The National Lawyers Guild trains non-lawyers to participate in observing and documenting what happens in immigration courts in S.F. Click here for more information: nlgsf.org/programs-committees/nlg-sfba-programs/immigration-justice-program/

Comprehensive action calendar: (www.actiontogetherwest.org/bayarea) A project that grew out of the 2016 Pantsuits Nation group, this is a very well-maintained and up-to-date calendar of resistance activities in the Bay Area.

Blue Christmas Service is coming up Sunday, December 21, 2025 at 2 PM

Christmas is a season of joy, yet for any number of reasons, from personal experiences to national or global events, some of us may feel "blue" as the season approaches. To acknowledge and make space for this experience, St. Aidan's has held a "Blue Christmas" service for the last several years. This year's service will take place at 2 PM on Sunday, December 21st. Come and join us for a service of readings, reflections, quiet contemplative space, and beautiful music. The service will be at St. Aidan's with a Zoom option for those who cannot join in person. The link will be the same as Sunday morning. Please reach out to the office if you need it: office@staidansf.org.

Sign-on Letter to the Presiding Bishop

Several weeks ago a group of St. Aidanites met to reflect upon this moment in history, the impact of this political moment on our lives and relationships, and what ways we are called to act in response. Between the 8 and 10 AM services as well as after the 10 AM service, we have now met twice. At the second such meeting, the group used Presiding Bishop Sean Rowe's July 4th op ed, published in Religion News Service, as a grounding text for reflection. During that conversation the group decided to write to the Presiding Bishop thanking him for the boldness of his words and asking him to please continue speaking out, inviting more Christians to be "engines of resistance," bearing witness to the values of God's just reign. Print-outs of this letter will be at church this Sunday for people to sign on. If you cannot be present and would like us to add your signature, please let us know at office@staidansf.org.

Wrestling with the Scriptures meets every fourth Tuesday at 10:30 am (via Zoom). Please feel free to reach out to the office for the Zoom access information: office@staidansf.org.

Contemplative Prayer: Tuesday & Thursday from 9-10 AM via Zoom

We offer Contemplative prayer via Zoom. Contemplative Prayer is silent with the beginning and ending marked by a bell. You can practice meditation, silent prayer, journal, or otherwise enjoy the collective quiet. Thank you to Susan Spencer for anchoring this practice. Please feel free to reach out to the office for the Zoom access information: office@staidansf.org.

Morning Prayer: Mon, Wed, Fri at 7:30 AM

We offer Morning Prayer in hybrid mode (at church and via Zoom) on Mondays and Wednesday, and on Fridays via Zoom only. Please feel free to reach out to the office for the Zoom access information: office@staidansf.org.
