People Glory to God for ever and ever.

A Litany for All Saints Day

Presiders and Deacon(s)
O God, Source of all being, and creator of Heaven and Earth,
Stand here beside us!

O God, our Redeemer, who died and rose again,
Stand here beside us!

O God, our Advocate, who descended as a dove at Jesus' Baptism and strengthens all of God's people,
Stand here beside us!

Holy Trinity, undivided, One God,
Stand here beside us!

By the creation of the first humans from the dust of the ground, their forming in your holy image, and inspiration with your sacred breath,
Stand here beside us!

By the calling forth of Noah and his family, the gathering of earth's creatures, and the gift of your covenant as a bow in the sky,
Stand here beside us!

By the blessing and sending of Abraham, Sarah, Hagar, Ishmael, Isaac, Rebekah, Jacob, Rachel, Joseph, and all our shared ancestors in faith,
Stand here beside us!

By the call of Moses at the burning bush, the liberation of the Israelites from Pharaoh's oppressive hand, and the rending of the Red Sea,
Stand here beside us!

By the courage of your holy prophets and all those who called your people to faithfulness of living and justice for those on the margins,
Stand here beside us!

By the establishment of the holy city of Jerusalem, your Temple, and the monarchs, Saul, David, and Solomon, who struggled for your glory,
Stand here beside us!

By the Annunciation to our sister Mary by the Angel Gabriel, the visitation to Elizabeth, and the Incarnation of the Word,
Stand here beside us!

By the voice that rang out in the wilderness, John the Baptizer, who washed your people in Jordan's waters and baptized Jesus,
Stand here beside us!

By the ministry of Peter, James, and John and all the disciples, their journey into faith and discipleship,
Stand here beside us!

By the first proclamation of the resurrection by Mary Magdalene and the other women,

Stand here beside us!

By Mary and Martha of Bethany and their brother Lazarus, who sought, served, and cried out in the midst of death,
Stand here beside us!

By the Canaanite woman, who persisted in the face of denial and procured healing from Jesus for her daughter,
Stand here beside us!

By the sacred stories of your evangelists Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, and the proclamation of the Good News,
Stand here beside us!

By the blinding light sent to Paul, his ministry to the Gentiles, and the bringing of Christ's Good News to all,
Stand here beside us!

By Anthony of Egypt, Benedict of Nursia, Clare of Assisi, Francis of Assisi, Catherine of Sienna, Kateri Tekakwitha and all who have called your people to live lives of holiness and prayer,
Stand here beside us!

By the Cappadocian siblings Gregory, Macrina, and Basil and Gregory Nazianzen; Augustine and Monica of Hippo; by Hildegard of Bingen, Bernard of Clairvaux, Thomas Aquinas, and all theologians who invite us into a faith that seeks understanding,
Stand here beside us!

By Augustine of Canterbury, Patrick of Ireland, Brigid of Kildare, Aidan and Cuthbert of Lindisfarne, Hilda of Whitby, Julian of Norwich and all who shined the Gospel light into the British Isles,
Stand here beside us!

By Martin Luther, John Calvin, Thomas Cranmer, Elizabeth Tudor, Ignatius of Loyola, John and Charles Wesley, and all leaders and theologians who renewed and reformed your church:
Stand here beside us!

By Harriet Tubman, Sojourner Truth, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Martin Luther King, Oscar Romero, Dolores Huerta, Hiram Hisanori Kano, Pauli Murray and all who lived lives of integrity, inspiration and truth,
Stand here beside us!

By John Lewis, Jonathan Daniels, Vida Scudder, Paul Washington, Elijah Cummings, Ruth Bader Ginsburg, and all stalwart champions in the on-going struggle to demand respect for the dignity and worth of every human being,
Stand here beside us!

By John Ross/Tsan-Usdi, Peregrian Pinos, Dario Marine, Grandfather Black Elk, Chief Bigfoot, and all indigenous people who have upheld the dignity and traditions of their people in the face of colonialist atrocities,
Stand here beside us!

By Phyllis Lyon, Del Martin, Harvey Milk, Harry Hay, Leslie Feinberg, Gilbert Baker, Aimee Stephens, Monica Roberts, and all persons who have fought for LGBTQ justice and shined lights of hope,
Stand here beside us!

By Matthew Shepard, Brandon Tina, Chanelle Pickett, Rita Hester, Gwen Araujo, Kassim Omar, Michelle Henry, and all LGBTQIA2S+ people whose authentic lives and sudden loss cry out against transphobia, queerphobia, and all manner of hatred,
Stand here beside us!

By Oscar Grant, Trayvon Martin, Michael Brown, Ahmaud Arbery, Breonna Taylor, George Floyd, Rayshard Brooks, Elijah McClain, Walter Wallace, Adam Toledo, Daunte Wright, and all whose lives have borne deep witness that Black Lives Matter, and that systemic racism, white supremacy, and police brutality must be eradicated,
Stand here beside us!

By Barbara Harris, Sam Hulsey, Robert Shahan, Delano Ellis, William A. Thompson, Andrew Fairfield and all leaders of every church who have preached the gospel and have called God's children to live in communion with one another,
Stand here beside us!

By the power of the Paschal Mystery, we pray for those whom we love but see no longer, that they may dwell in peace and in your Presence forevermore, and until we are all reunited to each other and you. All who have gone before us,
Stand here beside us!

Son of God, we beseech you to hear us.
Son of God, we beseech you to hear us.

The Collect of the Day

Presider The Creator be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Savior: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Savior, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The First Reading

Lector A reading from Revelation (7:9-17).

After this I, John, looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing,

> "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom > and thanksgiving and honor > and power and might > be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

> "For this reason they are before the throne of God, > and worship him day and night within his temple,
> and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.
> They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;

the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat;
for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 34: 1-10, 22

The Deacon or Presider introduces the Psalm and reads the Antiphon. All join in reading the bolded text.

Antiphon Those who seek God lack nothing that is good.

1 I will bless our God at all times;* your praise shall ever be in my mouth.

2 I will glory in our God;* let the humble hear and rejoice.

3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the Most High;* let us exalt God's Name together.

4 I sought you, O God, and you answered me* you delivered me out of all my terror.

5 Look upon the Most High and be radiant,* and let not your faces be ashamed.

6 I called in my affliction and God heard me* and saved me from all my troubles.

7 Your angel, O God, encompasses those who fear you,* and you will deliver them.

8 Taste and see that the Holy One is good;* happy are they who trust in God!

9 Fear the Holy One, you that are God's saints,* for those who fear God lack nothing.

10 The young lions lack and suffer hunger, but those who seek our God lack nothing that is good.

22 You ransom the life of your servants,* and none will be punished who trust in you.

Antiphon Those who seek God lack nothing that is good.

The Second Reading

Lector A reading from 1 John (3:1-3).

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Deacon or Presider The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew (5:1-12).
People Glory to you, O Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

"Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

"Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

"Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Deacon or Presider The Gospel of our Savior.

The Sermon The Rev. Cameron Partridge

Silence After the sermon, a bell will sound to mark a brief period of silence. The bell will sound a second time to mark the conclusion of this time.

Nicene Creed

Deacon, Seminarian, or Presider Together, let us join in saying the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary and was made human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

Who proceeds from the Father;
Who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified;
Who has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Confession and Absolution

Deacon or Presider Let us confess our sins against God and God's Creation.

A space of silence is kept.

All Holy and merciful God, we confess that we have failed to honor you by rightly claiming our kinship with all your creatures. We have walked heavily on your earth, overused and wasted its resources, taken for granted its beauty and abundance, and treated its inhabitants unjustly, holding future generations hostage to our greed. Have mercy on us and forgive us our sin. Renew in us the resolve to keep and conserve your earth as you desire and intend, with grateful and compassionate hearts, through your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

Presider
Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Deacon At this time I invite you to come forward and place a photo or memento of a loved one on the table in front of the altar.

After the people have returned to their seats, the Deacon continues,

I invite your prayer for all who have died since our last observance of All Saints and All Souls, remembering especially Marilyn Joyce Thomte, Father John Shozawa, Alton Woo, Virginia Procter, Kathy Randlett, Michelle Henry, Marybeth Wallace, Doug Yorke, Cleo Fry, David Jamieson, Kay Wells, Barbara Purcell, Hazel Perkins, Mike Isaacs and from the St. Cyprian's community for Norma Planizcka., and other beloveds we name either silently or aloud.

After the people have shared the names, the Presider continues with the Peace.

The Peace

Presider The peace of God be always with you.
People And also with you.

You are invited to share a sign of peace or if you are on Zoom, unmute and greet each other in the name of Christ.

Stewardship Reflection Katherine Bertaut

Offertory Prayer

Presider O God, may we cling wholeheartedly to you: whose tender touch and kindness, whose ever fresh remembrance and fragrance, whose radiant visage and clarity continually shares heavenly joy with us and with all the citizens of the heavenly city. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Table

Presider God be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to God.
Presider Let us give thanks to God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we say:

Holy, Holy, Holy, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of our God.
Hosanna in the highest.

Presider
Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love.
Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world.

Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your children, that with Aidan and all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Deacon/Presider As the Wisdom before Creation teaches us, we pray,

All Eternal Spirit, Earth-maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver,
Source of all that is and that shall be,
Mother, Father, Parent of us all,
Loving God, in whom is heaven:
The hallowing of your name echo through the universe!
The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world!

Your heavenly will be done by all created beings!
Your beloved community of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.
With the bread we need for today, feed us.
In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.
In times of temptation and test, strengthen us.
From trials too great to endure, spare us.
From the grip of all that is evil, free us.
For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever. Amen.

The Fraction

The Presider breaks the bread and says,

Presider This is the true bread which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.
People Whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

The Invitation

Lifting the bread and cup, the Presider and Deacon invite the people.

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God. All are welcome at God's table.

This Altar belongs to God and all are welcome to partake, wherever you are on your journey of faith.
If you choose to not receive the bread and/or wine, you are also welcome to receive a blessing;
simply come forward and cross your arms over your chest.

The Bread and Wine are shared with these words:
The Body of Christ, the bread of heaven; the Blood of Christ, the cup of salvation.

Postcommunion Prayer

Presider Let us pray.
All Faithful God, in the wonder of your wisdom and love you fed your people in the wilderness with the bread of life. We thank you for feeding us with this bread. May it strengthen us that by the power of the Holy Spirit we may embody your desire and be renewed for your service, through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Healing Prayer

The people are invited to share a request for healing prayer.
You may make a request for yourself or on behalf of another. The Presider then offers a prayer.

Election Prayer

Blessing

Presider
Live without fear: your Creator has made you holy, always walks with you, and loves you as a mother. Go in peace to follow the good road and may God's blessing be with you always. Amen.

The Dismissal

Deacon or Presider Let us go forth into all Creation, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

People Thanks be to God!

End of Life Choices, California

A Closer Look at Medical Aid-In-Dying in California
On Sunday, 1 November the St. Aidan's End of Life Ministry (ELM) will be sponsoring another conversation in our series on Life Care Planning.

Over the last several years, the ELM team has sponsored several sessions about how one can influence the health care that they would like to receive as life is nearing an end. We've talked about advance directives, the types of life support and life sustaining options; their uses, key questions to ask, and disadvantages and advantages of use. Most recently we discussed Hospice and Palliative care as well as the End-of-Life Option that allows one, meeting certain criteria, to end their life – know in California as Medical Aid in Dying.

This session will be a more intimate discussion not only about the End of Life Option, the law but about the experience of someone who has accompanied those who have chosen this option.

As with our other programs, we'll be providing information so people can exercise their agency to make an informed decision.

We'll provide a light lunch. Please attend, in person or on ZOOM, to be curious and to learn.

Poetry for Advent: A Formation Series

"The Holy Ghost over the bent world broods with warm breast and with ah! bright wings." So concludes "God's Grandeur" by the English Jesuit poet Gerard Manely Hopkins. Whether you read poetry frequently, or barely at all, come join us this Advent for a five-week series in which we'll read poetry together. We'll read poets such as John Donne, T.S. Elliot, Mary Oliver, Janet Morely, Jay Hulme, Rachel Mann, Padraig O'Tuama, Malcolm Guite, and W. H. Auden. In one of our sessions, we'll even be joined by a guest poet, the Rev. Dr. Regina Walton, the poetry editor for the Anglican Theological Review!

We'll meet five Wednesday on Zoom from 7-8 PM, just after Evening Prayer:

November 11 & 18, [skipping November 25], and December 2, 9, & 16.

If you need the Evening Prayer Zoom link, please reach out to Cary at office@staidansf.org.

Queer Chorus of San Francisco Presents "Queer as Folk Music"

Queer as Folk Music weaves together the music of queer singer-songwriters with folk and country genres to celebrate songs that tell the stories that the history books leave behind: songs of migration and belonging, resistance and resilience, love and loss.

Music by Dolly Parton, Joy Oladokun, Allison Russell, Brandi Carlile, Dunkan Skeik, and many others.

San Francisco Deanery Pilgrimage - Join a walk in our San Francisco Deanery!
Solvitur ambulando – It is solved by walking. Saint Augustine of Hippo's words attest to the revelatory experience of being in motion. SF Deanery Pilgrimages offer opportunities to reengage this ancient wisdom in community. Join walkers beginning this fall on a faithful pathway through San Francisco's Episcopal churches and live into Saint Augustine's maxim.

At a time of social instability and separation, the ancient practice of pilgrimage can bring us together with opportunities for personal reflection and group discernment toward the healing we seek and the thriving God desires for us.

Four quarterly walks over the year are planned. Join one, part, or all of them. On each pilgrimage, a morning's walk brings walkers to one of four parish regions around the city. By the fourth walk, pilgrims will have had the opportunity to visit all the Episcopal congregations of San Francisco and will be welcomed and blessed at our diocesan cathedral.

The four Saturday walks (9 am to approximately 1 pm) are:

- ~~October 10, 2026: Central Parishes [Episcopal Friary of St. Francis, St. John's in the Mission, St. Gregory of Nyssa, Church of the Advent of Christ the King, and All Saints]~~
- December 12, 2026: Northwestern Parishes
- February 13, 2027: Southwestern Parishes
- April 17, 2027: Northeastern Parishes

More Opportunities for Solidarity with Immigrants
Several local organizations offer opportunities to stand with immigrants facing Trump administration attacks.

Faith in Action(www.faithinactionba.org): Local branch of a national community-organizing group anchored in faith communities around the country. In the Bay Area they focus on housing and immigration. Opportunities include:

- Immigration Court. Accompany immigrants to their court hearings. You'll need at least conversational Spanish, and you'll be trained before you get started. For more information and the sign-up link: www.faithinactionba.org/accompaniment.
- Rapid Response Network (203) 666-4472: Faith in Action operates the San Mateo County Rapid Response phone network, providing information for immigrants and their supporters in the whole Bay Area, not just San Mateo. Call the number:
    - If you or a loved one has been detained by ICE
    - If you learn that someone has been detained by immigration enforcement
    - If you see ICE activity in the community
    - If you need accompaniment at an ICE Check-In or court appearance
    - If you need support filling out your asylum paperwork within the first year of entering the country
    - If you think immigration enforcement is contacting you by phone call or text message

Immigration court demonstrations and vigils: Several groups maintain a presence outside the immigration court at 100 Montgomery in downtown SF. Here are a couple:

- Interfaith Court Vigil (www.im4humanintegrity.org/category/events): Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday every week. Sponsored by the Interfaith Movement for Human Integrity. Click here to sign up: bit.ly/CourtVigilVolunteer.
- Tuesday and Friday demonstrations: Loosely organized, pretty confrontative demonstrations, called by Democratic Socialists of America and others.

Immigration Court Observers: The National Lawyers Guild trains non-lawyers to participate in observing and documenting what happens in immigration courts in S.F. Click here for more information: nlgsf.org/programs-committees/nlg-sfba-programs/immigration-justice-program/

St. Aidan's Prayers

In Your Prayers, Please Remember:

In acknowledgment that St. Aidan's is located within the unceded ancestral land of the Yelamu tribe of the Ramaytush Ohlone people, with gratitude for their ongoing relationship with this holy place.

In the Episcopal Church: For Sean our Presiding Bishop; for Julia, President of the House of Deputies, and for the Executive Council of the Episcopal Church.

In the Anglican Cycle of Prayer: For Iglesia Anglicana de la Region Central de America.

In the Diocesan Cycle of Prayer: For Austin, our bishop; for All Saints', San Leandro; All Saints', San Francisco; and All Souls, Berkeley.

In our Parish Cycle of Prayer: For the Choir.

For those with birthdays this week: Samuel.

For all striving for mental and emotional balance and wholeness, and for their families and friends.

For those who have asked for our prayers: André E., Ann C., ;Bill W., Carol-Ann, Charles, Chuck L., Cindi G., Dave P., Debbie C., Denise, Emily, Felicia F., Garry M., George C., Harry P., Jaime, Janice T., Jean W., Jelly J., Jenny M., Jill, Jim F., Jim O., Jodi F., Joe, Joelle, John, Judy B., Julie A., Ken E., Lucinda G., Lyle B., Lynne and Meg S., Margarita, Marc L., Mark, Matthew G., Mercedes, Michaela, Milo R., Mina Marie, Patricia, Patty, Peter G., Ping, Rocky V. and Ruth S., Ron B., Stephanie M., Steve E., Tawanda, Tony F., Tony L., Vicky, Zakaria E.

For our ongoing work against intersecting forms of oppression, particularly racism and transphobia, and in affirmation of human dignity.

For our work in the world in our daily lives and for the ministries of the Friday Food Pantry and Diamond Diners.

For our congregation as we embrace our call to practice sanctuary: may we commit ourselves to prayer, education, and support for immigrants to this country and for all who are estranged, excluded, or threatened in 21st century America. We pray in thanksgiving for the numerous gifts our refugee and immigrant siblings have brought, and continue to bring, to this country.

For all who are struggling in this time of intensified injustice and polarization in our country and around the world: for strengthened relationships and deepened commitment to our common life and the well-being of our planet.

For those who have recently died: Sharon Martinas, Pat Kleinberg, Chandru Murthi, Jessica Stevenson, Carol Bertaut, Kate Murphy, Anna Yang, Marilyn Whitcher, Albert Tam, The Rev. Jan Cazden, Emily Hopkins, & Thales, Vanessa and Augusto Ushizima.

To place a name on our prayer list, please contact the church office at 415-285-9540, ext. 3 or office@staidansf.org. Names of the living are printed by first name and will be kept on the prayer list for four weeks. To keep someone on the list for longer, please notify the office.

Plenty Good Room

Making Room for Plenty Good Harvest

The harvest is great, but the workers are few. Matthew 9:37 (NLT)

When I was a teenager, my grandmother loved her garden. She still does. Her garden required the kind of care that kept her hands in the soil and her attention fixed on the rhythms of the season. On warm afternoons she would call me outside to help her prepare the dirt, loosening the earth, pulling weeds, and clearing space for new seeds. I remember standing there sometimes, puzzled and very impatient. To me, the garden already looked fine.

After the winter season, I had grown accustomed to what it always looked like. To me, it was good enough. Why disturb what was already there? Why dig up soil that seemed just fine? The work felt slow and unnecessary, but my grandmother understood something I was still learning.

A healthy garden needs tending. She moved through those rows and buckets with patience, gently removing what did not belong, the stubborn weeds, the tangled stems, the crowded patches of soil that had no room left to breathe. She knew that if new life was going to grow, something first had to be cleared away. The garden would overflow with life, all because we made room.

Season after season, I was, and still am, amazed. Looking back now, I realize something I did not understand then: if the garden had stayed the way I wanted it, untouched, crowded, unpruned, we would never have seen that abundance at all. The garden required room, and a willingness to yield.

Sometimes that work feels uncomfortable. Sometimes it feels unnecessary. Sometimes we cannot yet see what God is preparing to grow. But the invitation remains the same: make room for new life, make room for deeper faith, make room for the Spirit to move in ways we may not yet understand. And when the seasons of harvest come, we may discover what my grandmother knew all along: when space is made in the garden, there is always plenty good room for the harvest. TENS.org

Questions for Reflection:

What might God be inviting you to release or clear away in your life so that something new can grow?
